

RUSS EXPECT PRZEMYSL TO FALL SHORTLY

ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT CAPTURE OF GALICIAN FORTRESS MAY BE EXPECTED.

GREAT ACTIVITY ON EAST FRONT

Opening of the Spring Campaign Is Indicated—Russ-On the German Border.

WAR SUMMARY.

(Associated Press.)

It was officially announced in London today that the British steamers Fingal and Atlanta had been torpedoed. The Atlanta, 500 tons, was torpedoed by submarines off Inisfurk, Ireland, at noon March 14. The crew landed the vessel and it is now in harbor. The Fingal, 650 tons, was sunk at 11 o'clock Monday morning, March 15, off Northumberland. Twenty of the crew landed, six being lost.

EASY ON DARDANELLES.

Constantinople asserts that only unimportant operations have been attempted against the Dardanelles by the allied fleet during the last few days. Athens says that a British mine sweeper was blown up in the straits by a mine and that several of the crew lost their lives.

BOMBARD NIEUPORT.

Paris reports that the Germans have bombarded Nieuport with their 16 inch howitzers and have demolished several buildings, but that no one was hurt.

MAY TAKE PRZEMYSL.

Petrograd dispatches say the capture of the powerful Galician fortress of Przemyśl which has held out so long against attack and siege, may be expected in a few days.

ACTIVITY IN EAST.

The greatest activity since the war began prevails along the 500 mile front of the eastern theater according to Petrograd, indicating the beginning of the spring campaign.

In the Carpathians the Russians have apparently been successful, turning the Austrians' right flank south of Stanislaw, in a spectacular battle, partly buried in snow, which in places was over the heads of the combatants. The Russians rushed the Austrian fortifications near Ternowice, secured the stronghold and captured a large number of prisoners.

AGAIN ON BORDER.

Berlin admits that the Russians are again on the Prussian border, in an official statement which says that the enemy's attack at Langensargen, on German soil, was repulsed.

LOWDEN BOOSTERS OFFER SLATE FOR THE '16 CAMPAIGN

TENTATIVE TICKET TO BACK UP
OGLE COUNTY MAN'S RACE,
PRESENTED BY FRIENDS.

WILL BE ANTI-DENEEN TICKET

Former Congressman From This District Is Being Boomed Hard for Governor of Illinois.

Chicago Herald: Promoters of C. H. Frank O. Lowden's "boom" for the republican nomination for governor have reached the point where they are considering a complete slate for 1916.

Cavass of the downstate regions, according to the Lowden chiefs, already has solidified some of the factions and headed off the candidacy of at least two possible opponents, John G. Oglesby and Homer J. Tice.

The slate making, which still is in tentative shape, contemplates a ticket that will represent most of the anti-Deneen element in the G. O. P.

Here's Tentative Slate.

As outlined yesterday, the slate now most generally talked of among Lowden men is as follows:

For governor—Frank O. Lowden, Oregon.

For lieutenant governor—John G. Oglesby, Oglethrust.

For secretary of state—L. L. Emerson, Mount Vernon.

For treasurer—Homer J. Tice, Greenville.

For attorney general—Samuel A. Ettelson, Chicago.

In addition, the Lowden men are talking of embracing in the slate "favorite son" candidacies for the presidency, Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman and Congressman James R. Mann are "boomed" by their friends, and one may be backed by the Lowden following.

For the senatorship in 1918 it has been the belief that Lowden forces might slate Congressman Martin B. Madden. Congressman William B. McKinley and Edward J. Brundage, however, are considered as possibilities and the speakership may not enter into the slate making.

STEPHENSON G.O.P. ENDORSES FARRAND

CONVENTION ENDORSED ALL
THREE CIRCUIT JUDGES, JUSTICE
CARTWRIGHT AND LOWDEN.

The Stephenson county republican central committee has adopted resolutions endorsing Judges Baugh, Heard and Farrand for re-election to the bench of this district and the resolutions also commend them for the able and efficient manner in which they have served the people of the district during their terms of office. A second set of resolutions passed by the committee endorses the candidacy of Justice James H. Cartwright of Oregon for re-election to the supreme bench from the Sixth district. The convention also endorsed Col. Frank O. Lowden for governor of Illinois.

Getting Acquainted With The Candidates

W. H. WOODYATT.

W. H. Woodyatt, who was one of the successful candidates at the city primaries recently and who is again a candidate for the final election for city commissioner was born in Dixon, Lee County, Ill., December 2, 1842. He attended the public schools in Dixon until the fall of 1858; then owing to the serious illness of his father, was compelled to quit school to assist in the work in his father's grocery store. At the death of his father on April 1st, 1859, he started to learn the trade of wagon and carriage painting. At the breaking out of the Civil war when President Lincoln issued his first call for volunteers, he enlisted in Co. A, Thirtieth regiment, Illinois Volunteers for three years.

He served under Grant, Sherman, Logan and others and through the siege of Vicksburg, having served two years and eight months when he

Dixon Will Vote On Shorter Hours For Fire Laddies

Petition Asking Change Allowed
By Law is Filed With City Clerk

On Tuesday afternoon a petition was filed with City Clerk Blake Grover calling for an election on the proposition to adopt the act in this city two years ago by the legislature regulating the hours of employment of the fire department. The proposition will be voted upon at the city election on Tuesday, April 20, and will be on a separate and distinct ballot from the ballot on which appear the names of the candidates for the offices of mayor and commissioner.

The act sets forth that employees of the fire department shall not be compelled to be on duty more than ten consecutive hours during the day time nor more than fourteen consecutive hours during the night. The chief of the department is to so arrange the working hours of the employees that they shall work as near as may be an equal number of hours per month. In some of the larger cities it is reported that the firemen do not look with favor on the act and in Chicago, they have gotten out placards renouncing the change. The law is not compulsory and it is left open to the people to either accept it or reject it. If the act should be accepted here it would undoubtedly necessitate the addition of at least one more man to the department, but many are of the opinion now that at least one more man should be added. Each man gets a half day off each week and this leaves only two men and the chief on duty at these times.

TO BOWLING TOURNEY.

John Valle and L. V. Chapman went to Peoria this morning to spend a couple of days attending the International Bowling tourney in progress there.

Carranza has also agreed to co-operate in providing transportation to all Americans and others who wish to leave Mexico City and to facilitate the handling of Red Cross supplies to the capital.

TO SHOW M.W.A. COLONY IN WEST

TUBERCULOSIS INSTITUTION AT COLORADO SPRINGS SHOWN ON THE SCREEN.

Actual scenes at the Woodmen's tuberculosis colony located at Woodmen, a small station twelve miles out of Colorado Springs, Colo., will be shown in motion pictures at the Family theatre Monday evening, March 22. The order supports a sanitarium for tuberculosis at this point and there are over a thousand patients in the colony. Treatment is free to every beneficiary member of the society. Harvey Boyer of this city has been at the colony about five months and he writes back that he is greatly improved in health and has gained twenty-five pounds since going there.

The motion pictures tell the story of a man going to the colony for treatment, and carry him along until he is cured. Scenes are shown of the vast tent colony as well as the sanitarium and the dining hall. Where the pictures have been shown they are reported to be very interesting. All Woodmen may secure tickets at the Dauntler cigar store.

Lyceum Players At Elks Highly Entertaining

Final Number on Winter's Course
Was Splendid—Children's Party Friday

A large number attended the entertainment given by the Chicago Lyceum Players at the Elks club Tuesday evening and they pronounced the final number of the winter's course to be fully up to the excellent standard established by the other numbers. For nearly two hours the performers kept their audience happily interested in their efforts, a program of pleasing variety being given.

Children's Party.

M'CORMICK AND BRONTE HERE SOON

GREATEST DOG IN WORLD WILL BE SEEN IN Y. M. C. A.
ENTERTAINMENT.

The next number of the Y. M. C. A. course of entertainments will be held next Tuesday evening at the Family theatre, when McCormick and Bronte will be the offering. Bronte is claimed to be the only mind-reading dog in the country and what he does is marvelous. He must not be confused as a trick dog, being able to add columns of figures and do other similar feats. Mr. McCormick is an impersonator and is very clever in his line. The entertainment is a rare treat and doubtless a large audience will turn out to see them. The reserved seat sale will open on Friday morning at the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

FROM WAR FIELDS OF EUROPE TO THE ASSEMBLY PLATFORM

DR. LINCOLN WIRT OF MASSACHUSETTS WILL GIVE INTERESTING LECTURE HERE.

TO VISIT EUROPE THIS YEAR

He Will Bring Results of His Three Months' Trip of Investigation—Also to Lecture on the Arctic.

Rev. F. D. Altman, chairman of the Program committee of the Rock River Assembly, made a very welcome announcement today when he gave out the information that the Assembly has secured Dr. Lincoln Wirt of Wellesley Hills, Mass., near Boston, for two lectures at this summer's session of the Assembly.

On Saturday, Aug. 7, Dr. Wirt will lecture on "The Conquest of the Arctic," and on Sunday, Aug. 8th, the noted explorer and teacher will lecture on the war and Europe, and for this lecture on the great conflict Dr. Wirt will be so well prepared that his lecture will be worth coming a great distance to hear.

In April Dr. Wirt leaves for Europe and for three months he will travel on the continent, studying Europe as he finds it then, and he will bring back to American people a message on "The Soul of a Great Conflict and the Hope of a Permanent Peace." Dixon people and the visitors at the Assembly will be among the first to hear this great lecture, and coming as it will first-hand from one who will have been on the scene and who is so ably fitted to describe it to us, the lecture on the war will be one of the great drawing cards of the program.

Dr. Wirt was sent some years ago to the Valley of the Yukon by the United States government, and his lecture on Alaska is one of deep interest and great value. Dr. Wirt is personally known to Dr. Altman, who has great admiration for the lecturer and recommends him highly to the people of this community.

TWO FELLOWS ARE ACCUSED OF HAVING STOLEN WEARING APPAREL.

R. Cochran and B. Kelleher were bound over to the grand jury of the April term of circuit court by Justice Hines of Amboy on the charge of larceny. Kelleher's bond was fixed at $150 and he was released upon furnishing the amount. Cochran was unable to give bond and brought here last evening by Deputy Sheriff Stewart Nettz and placed in the county jail.

The men are charged with entering a room occupied by L. Cullinan, a railroad man while away on his run, and taking a suitcase containing wearing apparel.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Kaylor will go to Fulton this evening to conduct her weekly dancing class.

OPERATIONS AT STATE GROUNDS ARE UNDER WAY

EXCAVATIONS NEARLY READY FOR FOUNDATION OF ONE OF THE BIG BUILDINGS.

WILL BE HIVE OF INDUSTRY

Labor To Be At a Premium In Dixon This Summer—Work Gangs To Camp On Grounds At Colony.

Two stacks of bright new lumber, a telephone line extending into the grounds and a force of men and teams at work making the excavation for one of the big buildings, are evidence that Allen & Son, Peoria contractors, are not going to let any available time slip by in their erection of the nine buildings of the State Industrial Colony for Improveable Epileptics north of this city.

The stacks, which are on the high ground between the Illinois Central tracks and the Hazelwood road, are now used for storing tools and materials, and another big temporary structure will be erected soon for housing the laborers who are to have almost constant work at the colony site throughout the summer.

To Camp On Grounds.

In all probability many of the men and teams which will be used in the construction of the administration building, the two dining halls and the six dormitories, will be taken care of right on the grounds, with the bunk houses and dining rooms built for their use.

The excavation for the concrete foundation of the administration building is practically ready and the teamsters and diggers are now removing the earth from the inside; while farther to the rear of the colony ground the Illinois Central is arranging to extend its spur switch track to the site of the administration building. When this track is completed it will facilitate the handling of all building materials, which can then be unloaded conveniently to the place they are to be used.

Work on the two artesian wells which are to supply water for the colony buildings, is progressing very favorably. Flowing water has been struck, but it is not of the quality demanded by the state officials, and the shaft is therefore being sunk further.

Work which is now being done is largely preliminary, although where it is possible permanent results are being secured; but generally speaking, the preparations which are now being made are merely to get ready for the army of men who will of necessity be employed on the grounds when work on the nine buildings is undertaken. Another month will see the colony site one of the busiest places in northern Illinois, while the pavement of North Crawford avenue, and possibly the highway leading to the colony, and the construction of the trolley line from Fellows street to the entrance of the institution grounds will provide labor for hundreds of men during the coming three or four months.

Dr. Evans is out today after a few days' illness.

ROMANIA.

Servia is a small country, with no resources, but it started the greatest war in the world. Rumania is also a small country, whose most notable product up to the present has been Carmen Sylvia the poetess. But it may end the same war.

Rumania is so old that some of the larger belligerents are merely upstarts. When the Roman emperor, Trajan, was enlarging the map of the world in order to accommodate the Roman boundaries, he planted a colony north of the Danube river, near the Black Sea. Later, when the Roman empire went out of business this colony continued to grow and thrive by itself. Latin is spoken in Rumania today, and its name has not changed in 1800 years.

Rumania is a squarish tract of land with an ell extending northward on the west side and is a little smaller than Illinois. It has 7,500,000 people, who are almost unanimously farmers. These farmers have, by long practice, attained an extraordinary degree of poverty. All of Rumania's export business together, including all the grain sold outside the country is not as large as the business which is done by one Chicago mail order house. But Rumania supports 50,000 soldiers in considerable readiness to fight. Being a European is as serious and fatiguing an operation there as it is elsewhere.

Rumania has had a long history, illuminated mostly by the departure of conquerors after there was nothing left to loot. The Tatars, Goths, Bulgarians, Huns, Turks, Magyars, Russians and Poles have all grabbed the country at one time or another, and have operated it as carelessly as a chauffeur runs a borrowed automobile. For over 1800 years Rumania had to produce the revenues, while various neighbors tried to govern her. But in 1881 she was allowed to become a kingdom and govern herself. Two years ago Rumania suddenly waded into Bulgaria and whipped her producing as much of a sensation thereby as a sweatshop worker would by knocking out Jack Johnson. Since then Rumania has been a real kingdom, but no insurance company would care to write a policy on it until present general ill feeling is over.

Rumania is separated from several million fellow Rumanians in Transylvania by a boundary line, and hopes before the present war is over to shift the said boundary line to the other side of the Rumanian population.

WIT AND NEAR WIT.

Money talks—brooks murmur—leaves whisper—and the rooms communicate wit heath other.

Boreleigh—Some men, you know, are born great, some achieve greatness—

Miss Keen—Exactly! And some just grate upon you.

"Is she pretty?"
"Pretty! Say a one-legged man would offer her his seat in a street car."

"Mother," said a little boy as he sat down to breakfast, "where is dreamland?"

"I don't know, my son. Why do you ask?"

"Cause I dreamed last night I had a dandy double-runner there and I want to go and get it."

"Who's that impressive looking woman over there?"

"That's Mrs. Peekum. She's a remarkably strong-minded woman, and they do say that she commands a very large salary."

"How does she earn it?"
"She doesn't earn it. Her husband earns it and she commands it."

"Seeing is believing," observed the sage.

"Not always," replied the fool. "I saw a man today I wouldn't believe under oath."

"There's a perfect match."

"So?"

"Yes. She's a spitfire and he's a stick."

"Why do you keep looking over the weather map?"

"For relaxation. The names are so much easier to spell and pronounce than those on the war map."

Aunt—Do you know, Bobby, what candy does to your teeth?

Bobby—No Auntie; but I do know what my teeth do to candy.

"Pa, a man's wife is his better half, isn't she?"

"We are told so, my son."

"Then, if a man marries twice, there isn't anything left of his, is there?"

First Burglar—Hallo Bill. Why you look as if you'd been through a cyclone since I last met you. What's wrong?

Second Burglar—I got into a house where the woman was waiting up for her husband, and she mistook me for him.

"Everytime I read Shakespeare I discover some idea that hadn't struck me before."

"Yes," replied the man who yawns "but isn't it pretty much the same way with an insurance policy?"

The policeman had a gambler by the arm and was waiting for the patrol wagon to arrive.

"What are you doing?" asked a friend of the officer who happened to be passing.

"I am holding a card party," replied the cop.

George Richard was in DeKalb today to close up a deal for the sale of a platform scale.

ACTIVE DAY FOR "DOPE" VICTIMS

Two Murders. One Suicide and Two Robberies Reported.

NEGROES HOLD UP DRUGGIST

Two Negroes Clean Out Entire Stock of Cocaine, Saying They Didn't Want Money, Just "Dope"—Crazed Man Commits Murder in Jackson Park.

Chicago, March 17.—Two murders, one suicide, on a freak robbery, and the holding up of a druggist for his supply of "dope" are a day's results of the new federal law prohibiting the sale of habit forming drugs.

The Murders.
Henry Hein, 6047 Harper avenue, died at the Washington Park hospital. He was shot in Jackson park Sunday night by a barched man, apparently crazed by the lack of drugs, who fled into the night and escaped. His murderer has not been caught.

John Cray, said to be a cocaine user, crazed by the stopping of his supply of the drug, ran amuck near Winamac, Ind., pursued his wife and three children from his home to the home of a neighbor, John Walters, and shot Walters dead.

The Suicide.
Orlando Galley, 811 Cass street, died of carbolic poisoning. He wrote a weird letter telling of his pursuit by the "powers of darkness," tried to kill himself by hanging, and finally took the acid. He is believed to have been made insane by his inability to obtain the drugs his system craved.

The Robberies.
Two negroes, one armed with a revolver, entered the drug store of Hyman, Lebovitz, 2843 Wentworth avenue, shortly before noon, made him show them where the cocaine was kept, and fed with his entire stock of it. "We don't want your money—just your dope," they told the druggist. But they took $14 they found in the drawer as well as the $10 worth of cocaine.

David Stanley, 2626 South Michigan avenue, a young Englishman, entered the show rooms of Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Co., 303 North State street, picked up a $4 automobile clock and ran, according to the complaint of C. H. Krippachue, the superintendent. The latter pursued, captured and took him to the Central station, where he was booked for larceny.

He begged for "just one more chance," saying that he was a cocaine user and was trying to cure himself. He exhausted the last of his anti-cocaine medicine on Monday, he said, and was "not himself" or he would not have attempted the theft. He has a wife in England and has been in this country but four months, he added.

"BEP" PARTY THROUGH HERE.

was discharged by reason of disability and came home. After regaining his health, he went to work in the grocery store of Adam Cathcart for one year and also worked one year in the grocery of B. C. Dishon. He then returned to the painting business and continued at that for several years. In the spring of 1879 he was appointed special policeman by city marshal, D. W. McKenny and served consecutively under Marshals J. W. Kent, Joseph R. Morrill, Edward Sterling and William Coffey, as their deputy. In March, 1878, he was appointed city marshal by Mayor John Dement, and served as city marshal, consecutively under Mayors John V. Thomas, R. S. Farland and A. C. Warner. In November, 1886, he was selected sheriff of Lee county for four years. At the expiration of his term, he was appointed as deputy sheriff by George F. Stainbrook and served during his term of office. He was again appointed deputy by Sheriff Josiah L. Grey and served until April, 1895, when he was appointed chief of police by Mayor Charles H. Hughes and served continuously under mayors F. A. Truman, Henry S. Dixon and I. E. Edwards, resigning his position May 1, 1911.

Soon after the commission form of government went into effect, he was appointed a special police officer by the late Commissioner Martin J. Cannon, and at the death of Mr. Cannon, he turned in his star and retired from active police work. He joined the first regular organized fire department in the city of Dixon in 1872, and was an active member for about 10 years. He was health officer many years and assisted Health Officer A. F. Moore through the small pox epidemic a few years ago. There were over 300 cases of small pox in the city during the epidemic. During his 44 years of police work in the city of Dixon, he has been closely identified in criminal work to the arrest and conviction of criminals of all classes from the petty thief to the murderer than any officer in this section of the state. He was married to Miss Theresa R. Hill of Dixon, Ill., February 19, 1865. His family consists of thirteen children, nine boys and four girls, all living. Seven children reside in Dixon, two in Vancouver, B. C., one in Rockford, one in Freeport, one in Minneapolis, Minn.

HINTS TO "CITY" GARDENERS GIVEN

UNCLE SAM'S AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT OFFERS ADVICE ON GARDENING.

A WAY TO CUT THE H.C.O.L.

Government Offers Suggestions for School Gardens—Teach the Children How.

Washington, D. C., March 15.—Radishes, lettuce, beans, beets, and tomatoes are all comparatively easily grown vegetable which give satisfactory returns in the spring garden. The U. S. department of agriculture's specialists recommend these particularly for use in school gardens which are run for the benefit of the children. Not only teachers, but other desiring to raise these truck crops in their own home gardens may benefit from these suggestions:

Radishes.
Radishes are hardy plants and thrive best during the cool weather of early spring and late autumn. In the south they can best be grown during the winter and early spring months. The seeds should be sown in drills, in rich, well prepared soil, placed about one-half an inch apart and buried not deeper than 1 inch nor less than one-half inch. When the plants are showing the second set of leaves they should be thinned to stand from 2 to 3 inches apart in the row.

Lettuce.
Lettuce is a hardy plant and thrives best during early spring and late autumn. The seeds should be sown in drills in the open or in boxes in the window. If in the open, the seeds should be scattered about one-half inch apart along the row and covered not more than one-half inch with earth. Firm the earth well over the seeds, so as to bring the moist soil in contact with them. When the plants are well up, thin to 6 inches apart in the row. If the seeds were sown in a window box, hothead, frame or greenhouse transplant the young plants to stand 2 by 2 inches apart as soon as the seed leaves are well expanded, and when they begin to crowd transfer them to their permanent place in the open, if the weather will permit. In the field, they should stand at least 6 inches apart each way.

Beans.
Beans are tender plants. They can not endure frost and will not stand transplanting well. It is best to wait and plant the seeds of this plant in the open where the plants are to grow, delaying the work until severe frosts are past. Plant in rows 1 foot apart, placing the seeds about 2 inches deep at intervals of 6 inches. Keep the soil loose and free from weeds.

Beets.
Beets, while they are hardy and can be planted at the same time as longer season for maturing. The seeds should be planted in rows 1 foot apart, placed an inch apart in the row and covered 1 inch deep. When the plants are well up (2 inches high), thin to 4 inches apart in the row. Keep the soil well tilled at all times.

Tomatoes.
The tomato is the most exacting of all the plants in the collection. From Washington southward the seeds may be planted in the open at the same time as beans, but to the north of this point the seeds should be sown in boxes, hot beds or green houses from the first to the middle of March, the young plants being transplanted to stand 2 by 2 inches apart as soon as the first true leaves appear. When they begin to crowd in their new position, shift them to 4 inch pots or to cans such as are used by canners for tomatoes, and keep them growing slowly until about May 20 to June 1, when it will be safe to place them in their permanent locations in the garden. Set the plants in rows 18 inches apart and place the plants about 20 inches apart in the rows. Each plant as it grows should have all the side branches removed and the main stem tied to a stout stake about 5 feet tall and at least an inch square, driven firmly in the ground.

CONFERENCE ARCH DEGREE.
A special meeting of Nachusa chapter R. A. M. No. 56, will be held this evening at the Masonic hall at which time the Royal Arch degree will be conferred upon candidates. Following this work lunch will be served.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

BRITISH CRUISER HIT IN DARDANELLES RAID

Batteries That Shell Her Are Silenced by Fleet Guns.

Salonica, March 17.—(Delayed.)—The British light cruiser Amethyst on Sunday made a dash into the straits, notwithstanding the mines and the gun fire from the forts, and penetrated nearly to Nagara, the narrowest point, when she was hit by twenty-two shells. Twenty-eight of her crew were killed and thirty wounded. Notwithstanding the fact that three of the shells penetrated below the water line and she was making water rapidly, the Amethyst succeeded in getting back to the fleet and anchored near the Tenedos light house. The object of the exploit is not known.

The adventure of the Amethyst occurred after the allied fleet had discovered that mobile Turkish batteries were taking positions in the neighborhood of Kum Kale and the Gulf of Saros with a view of preventing the allies from making a landing. The fleet bombarded the position for three hours and apparently reduced the batteries to silence. Immediately after this had been accomplished the Amethyst darted ahead.

BANKER ARRESTED; IS NOW BANKRUPT

Freeport, Ill., Mch. 17.—George F. Toenges, former owner of a private bank at Rockton, Ill., and who was arrested in Chicago two weeks ago on complaint of creditors, has filed a petition in bankruptcy in the federal court here. Toenges' personal property at Rockton, including four Argos cats, was recently sold to satisfy creditors.

FARM IS NOT QUARANTINED

It was erroneously reported a few days ago that the cattle on the farm of Ira Butterbaugh, of Pennsylvania Corners, near Woosung, had contracted the foot and mouth disease, and a local paper reported the farms as quarantined, but although it was suspected that the cattle on the place might be effected, close inspection by the state and federal officials has proven that such is not the case and the Butterbaugh farm is now free from suspicion. The farm was suffering from some minor complaint and Mr. Butterbaugh called the inspectors in to examine the cattle and make sure that they did not have the foot and mouth disease.

Sixty guests were received by the hostesses and the Fraser home, which is one of the handsomest in this part of the state, was especially attractive in decorations of spring flowers—the color scheme, both for the house and luncheon decorations, were yellow and green—jonquils and ferns being used in profusion. Yellow candles with yellow shades cast a soft and pleasing light—altogether the effect was charming.

The following ladies from Dixon were included in the invitations and greatly enjoyed the function: Mesdames Charles C. Kost, Kirby Reed, R. W. Winders and L. W. Newcomer.

He visits 25 different lodges and told the local order he had not seen a degree team that could hold a candle to that of No. 27. The team is in excellent condition in spite of the depression so keenly felt. After the meeting an oyster supper was served. All left the hall feeling that an evening with the Mystics is always a pleasure.—Correspondent.

French Statement Says More Gains Are Made.

Paris, March 17.—Events of yesterday on the Franco-Belgian front are described in a statement from the war office this afternoon as follows:

"The Belgian army has consolidated its gains of the last few days. The British army, after having retaken St. Eloi, has also recaptured trenches southwest of the village and compelled the enemy to evacuate trenches southeast of the same point, which have been demolished by the artillery."

"In Champagne fresh progress has been made northeast of Souain. In the forest of Le Pretre we have recaptured from the Germans the remainder of the trenches won by them recently; or, to be more precise, the site of these trenches for defensive works has been completely shattered by mine explosions."

"On the southern slope of Great Reich Ackerkopf an attack by the enemy yesterday morning carried a trench. We have retaken it and made some prisoners."

VOTE FOR THE IMPROVED ROADS.

When Colonel Brinton negotiated with the state authorities for the epileptic colony, they stipulated, among other things, a brick pavement from the depots on the south side to the gates of the colony, in front of the administration building. The Board of Administration also asked for a great many other things, such as a street railway, better hotel accommodations, etc., etc. Every single thing they asked for has been granted, with the one exception. Every promise that Colonel Brinton and the Dixon Citizens' Association made to the Board of Administration has been fulfilled, excepting the paved road out to the grounds.

The city of Dixon is putting in brick pavement to the city limits on this road. By law that is as far as the city can go. It is now up to the township to complete this contract made with the state. This is the only money investment the public has been asked to make in order that this great state institution might be located here. It is surely worth what this will cost us.

And, besides, there will be no more popular drive out of Dixon than the road to the colony. The city that will be built up there by the state of Illinois for its unfortunates will be the greatest sight this surrounding country will afford and the colony will be the show place of Dixon. Should not this street, which will be so busy with traffic, be paved?

Because of objections on the part of property owners, it was necessary to send the street car line through the middle of the road all the way to the colony, and this will result in the driveway being ruined for vehicles, unless a pavement is put in on each side of it. The plan calls for a thirty-foot roadway, with the tracks through the center.

If this proposition, as well as the Lincoln Highway improvement, goes through, Dixon will have the foundation for the finest system of country roads in this part of the middle west, and Dixon, with her reputation for progress to maintain, cannot afford to stand still and let other communities get ahead of her, whether it be in the matter of improved roads or anything else. Vote in favor of both of the road improvements.

ELGIN HAS BIG UNION HIGH SCHOOL.

It means a great deal to a city to have a fine big high school, and when a city has one, it is proud of it. Elgin has one of the best high schools in the state, and the following, from the Elgin News, shows how proud the citizens of the "Watch City" are of the institution:

When the fine high school was built there were many objectors to so large an expenditure of money. But any such have changed their minds by this time if they have considered at all the great work that institution is doing for the boys and girls of Elgin. The number of students now attending is approaching the one thousand mark, a remarkable showing for a city of this size. Some will go on to higher places of learning but a large majority will of necessity go to work when they have finished their course. But even these latter will have received a very good education in a finely equipped institution. The boys and girls deserve it and the city never made a more profitable investment in the long run than its new and complete high school.

THEY ASK SUPPRESSION OF NEWS.

An editor is often placed in an embarrassing position by only too frequent requests not to publish legitimate news. No one would ever think of asking a merchant to suppress the sale of Limburger cheese or a short skirt to a stout lady. But everyone seems to have an idea that a newspaper can at any time and on any occasion dispense with the sale of its chief stock in trade—news.

Often we get a request from a friend and patron to keep something out of the newspapers. Unless the article is unfair or will do harm to an innocent person it is printed, for we cannot show favors to one and not to others. Persons who dislike the notoriety of newspaper should not do things that get their names in print. For instance, if you are a speed fiend, slow up, for if the motorcycle cop gets you, you need not expect the newspaper man to shield you.

FAMOUS EDITORS ARE ILL.

Two famous editors of the land are seriously sick and thereby public opinion given a set-back. In the east "Sam" Bowles, editor and proprietor of the Springfield Republican and a power for good in all New England, is hovering between life and death. In the west, William R. Nelson, editor of the Kansas City Star and one of the greatest newspaper men of the country, is not expected to live. Neither one has passed the age of great usefulness and it is hoped that both may be spared for years to come.

MANY REAL ESTATE DEALS IN DIXON.

One of the best indications of the financial condition of a city is the condition of real estate, and by that rule it is safe to say that there is not a city in the middle west that is as good commercially and financially as Dixon. Property is changing hands rapidly in Dixon, and at big prices. The prices are not inflated, either; they are founded on real worth.

The fellow who discovered that the Lincoln speech date on the boulder at the court house was wrong, should be made to get another boulder and put the right date on it. We would all have been perfectly satisfied with the old date if he hadn't said anything.

There will be two propositions for bond issues to pave township roads up before the voters at the coming township election. They are both good, progressive measures and should receive support.

So many of us have decided that we prefer California when it is not overrun with a lot of crazy tourists. So we rather think we'll stay home this year, don't we?

Mr. Sayre has had the offer of at least three fat jobs. In these dull times it sort of helps to be son-in-law of the grandfather of the White House baby.

All you have to do to know the nationality of the pressman is to take a squint at the front page tonight. It's a long way from Tipperary, but a lot of them have made the jump in the past century.

C. M. Campbell & Son.

The king sat in his palace, a few brief ages back, and from his golden chalice he drank a quart of sack. And dames with sunny ringlets, and courtiers brave and gay, were there to keep his kinglets from yawning life away. The chimney didn't draw well, the room was full of smoke and so the king said, "Aw, well, we'll just sit here and choke." No screen was on the window—which surely was a sin—so there was naught to hinder the flies from coming in. They bit the royal person and kept his nobles a ripplin' round and cursin' like any vulgar swabs. No phonograph to cheer him, no phone through which to swear, and on convenience near him that modern folks could bear! The workman in his cottage, who feeds his children four the predigested pottage bought at the corner store, more luxury is knowing than knew the kings of old, with all their bunk and blowing of fields of cloth of gold. Just think of mighty Edward, the ruler of his land, as he went stumbling bedward, a rushlight in his hand. And still the memory lingers of mighty chiefs of York, who ate meat with their fingers, because they had no fork. The kings who dwelled in splendor in gloomy ancient halls, ne'er knew a beefsteak tender, nor sampled codfish balls.

PEOPLES COLUMN

REGARDING SCHOOL BOOKS

Editor Dixon Evening Telegraph.

Dear Sir: I have at various times read in the Telegraph of proposed changes in the school districts, change in text books and in methods of instruction, and in fact changes in practically everything pertaining to our school system except the one which is most important to the great majority of people affected (the text book graft). In Kansas, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts, in which states I have had the good fortune to live for some years, and perhaps in a dozen other states of which I know nothing, the text books the furnished by the schools, also supplies of every kind, thereby affording the six or eight children of the poor shoe maker a more equal chance to secure an education with the lone child of his more fortunate neighbor than is possible in Dixon, where the man with half a dozen children in school must invest about $50.00 per year in text books, and they cannot always be passed down from the older to the younger children because of the frequent changes in books.

I would venture to say that the whole equipment is changed at least once in every five years and there is practically no difference between the old and the new except in the name. In Massachusetts my son used a book which had been in use since 1879 and there is no essential difference between it and the one in use here now. You can teach a child to read just as well with the Telegraph as you can with a text book. My own school education ended in the 4th grade largely because of the cost of books for a lot of children. Why not give all as near an equal chance as possible? Let the school provide the books.

Each community today presents problems and each school system must meet those conditions if it is going to maintain a high state of efficiency. The real test is whether the school is meeting the needs of the locality in which it is situated and the problem that confronts us is not the kind of work done in Boston or elsewhere, but rather what the children need in Dixon, irrespective of whether that happens to be the usual kind of work or not. Such education demands economy in effort. It demands co-operation of the society which the school serves, for co-operation is the basis of economy.

I have been hoping for some time that some more able person would open up this phase of the school situation, but have finally decided to try to start something myself.

Why cannot the schools of Dixon own the text books? Is there a book trust, and is the answer graft?

Editor's Note — We learn from Prof. W. R. Snyder that in the south side schools there has been a change in three of the text books in the five years that he has been at the head of the schools. Text books like other things become obsolete and in order to keep abreast of modern methods changes are made. The arithmetic was changed some four years ago, and two years ago the reader was changed. Last year a new language book was introduced. These books are all in use in two, to three grades. Whenever a change is made a rebate is arranged on the new book to be bought. The idea in making part of the changes was to have a uniform text book in use in the same grades on either side of the river. The school authorities inform us that the total cost of sending a child to school on

OFFER SLATE FOR THE 16' CAMPAIGN

Offered to Mr. Lowden.

As to the men listed on the tentative slate, Mr. Oglesby, former lieutenant governor, has been considered a probable candidate for governor. Lowden men say he has promised to support their man in case he enters the race.

Mr. Emmerson is a former Deneen man who was the Sherman candidate for state chairman at the state convention last year.

Mr. Tice is a Sherman leader who some months ago was on the Sherman slate for speaker, then for governor.

Colonel Frank L. Smith of Dwight came to Chicago yesterday and began a series of conferences over his candidacy for the republican nomination for governor. He spent several hours with Charles S. Deneen, former governor, going over the situation in detail, and met a delegation of LaSalle county leaders at the Union League club. Preparation of literature is under way and the coming week is expected to see Mr. Smith's campaign launched and headquarters opened.

Deneen Men Uncommitted.

Mr. Deneen and his followers have not as yet committed themselves to the Smith candidacy. Their attitude, however, is one of friendliness, and the preliminary conferences this week are expected to see the drawing of definite lines in Cook county over the governorship.

BELGIANS CELEBRATED AMERICAN HOLIDAY

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY WAS WIDELY OBSERVED IN LITTLE KINGDOM.

Brussels, Feb. 28.—Correspondence of the Associated Press.—No foreign holiday has ever been celebrated so fervently in Belgium as was Washington's birthday, but in the city of Brussels St. Valentine's day almost usurped the honor which the Belgians wished to pay to the memory of America's first president. Someone started the story that St. Valentine's day was the national fete day of the United States and consequently on the 14th, thousands of citizens wore the small American flags, and letters of good wishes poured into the American Legation.

The province of Liege made no mistake in the matter and the city council of Liege ordered that Washington's birthday should be celebrated with formal exercises in the schools, which were also granted a vacation on the 23rd. The following circular was therefore sent to the headmasters of the various schools: "The United States of America have, of late, shown deep interest in the welfare of Belgium. By revivifying the population which has suffered so much from the war, America has rendered an immense service to our country. The 22nd of February is a national holiday of the United States. I desire that on this day the pupils of all professional schools for girls and of all grammar schools partake in the celebration and that on this occasion the importance of the services rendered by the American republic to the Motherland and the noble example set by this act of international solidarity be clearly illumined. I leave it to your judgment to arrange the details of the manifestation."

U. S. TO YIELD IN BLOCKADE ORDER

But Vigorous Protest Will Pave Way for Damages.

BRITAIN FORWARDS NEW NOTE

It Is Reply to U. S. Request to Lift Ban on Food to German Non-combatants—Explains That Order Is Really Less Than Blockade in All Senses.

Washington, March 17.—In explanation and defense of her extraordinary program of cutting off all trade with Germany, Great Britain asks that the United States view this procedure as a modified form of blockade.

A formal statement regarding the new policy, which the British already know is certain to be sharply objected to by the United States, was received here as a note accompanying the copy of the orders in council handed to Ambassador Page Monday. This note not only contains a rejection of the American joint proposals to Great Britain and Germany suggesting a modification of their maritime policies, but also answers the United States inquiries as to what may be expected under the new orders by which the allies have announced their intention to prevent all trade with Germany.

The British government asked that its communication on these two subjects be withheld from the public by the United States government until Thursday morning when they will be also published in Great Britain. The American notes, the one suggesting that Great Britain pass foodstuffs for the civil population of Germany in return for a modification of Germany's submarine operations and the later note of inquiry regarding the new policy will be given out at the same time.

Less Than Blockade Both Ways.

Though the British response to these communications was carefully guarded at the state department, it may be said authoritatively that the burden of the British statement regarding the new policy is that the operation should be regarded by neutrals as something less than a blockade and therefore though new to international precedent is less damaging to neutral interests than the more familiar blockade proper.

This explanation on the part of the British government has in no way shaken the intention of the administration to lodge as vigorous a protest as is possible against the allies' procedure in seeking to strangle all trade with Germany. The president's call for the White House firmly convinced that Mr. Wilson feels very strongly on this issue but the president himself declined to make any comment on the subject this time. It was declared in other quarters, however, that the United States would assert itself as vigorously as possible in defense of what are regarded as its rights.

U. S. Won't Remain Silent.

The British orders in council are held to outline a mode of procedure wholly unauthorized by any principle in international law and unlike anything ever before attempted. While it is generally conceded that the United States is not in a position, nor of the mind, to bring to bear upon Great Britain, France and Russia, the only kind of pressure which might effect modification of their policy, yet this government, it is asserted, will not remain silent in the face of what is regarded as a flagrant violation of its rights. It is proposed, at least, to establish grounds on which claims for damages may subsequently rest. The effect which the virtual blockade of Germany is likely to have upon public opinion in this country is wholly appreciated here. The belief here is that it will stir up stronger feeling in this country against England than has appeared up to this time.

This Priest Reveals Mexican Knows Where There's Money.

New York, March 17.—Gems worth a half million dollars brought here by a shabbily dressed priest of the Catholic church in Mexico were held at the custom house awaiting appraisal. The jewels are said to be part of an archbishop's silk robe, probably more than three hundred years old. Diamonds and emeralds, rubies and pearls are wrought into the ancient coat of arms covering the whole breast of the robe.

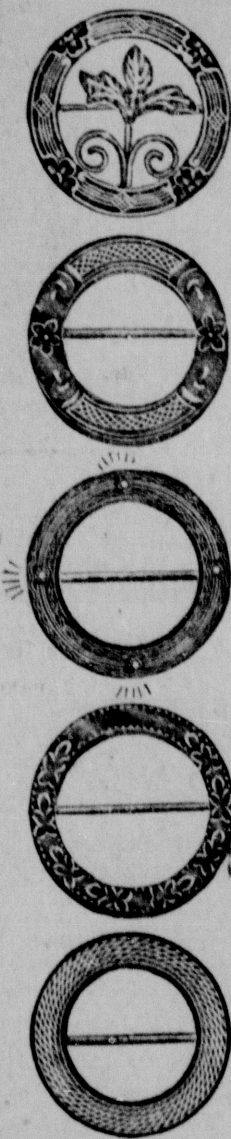

The priest hastily packed the robe in a suitcase when General Obregon called for a church tax of $500,000. The priest, with six others, fled to the United States when banished from Mexico City by Obregon.

The collars on Wooltex tailored coats and jackets are made just as the best custom-tailors made the collars on men's coats—and you know they are made right.

The collars on these Wooltex coats we show are carefully molded, not hot-iron-pressed into shape.

As the "set" of the collar depends to a great extent upon the tailoring of the lapels and fronts, the latter are so built that they retain their original form, lying close and flat, or gracefully rolling as the style of the garment requires.

Come in and see these points of superiority in Wooltex tailored garments. You'll be equally as well pleased with their style and becomingness.

LITTLE GIRL PROVES HEROINE AT BLAZE

Personality Dared Save Family and Home.

Girard, March 15.—Little Gladys Ganger, severely burned by fire, resulting from the explosion of a kerosene lamp, early in the morning, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ganger, rushed down the stairway, her night clothes aflame, and awakened the other members of the family, and carried water to her room extinguishing the flames.

Gladys, who is thirteen years old, was awakened at 4 o'clock by the burning bed covers, which had been ignited by blazing oil thrown when the lamp exploded. She roused her younger brother, who was asleep in the same room.

Not until the danger to the others had abated did she complain of her injuries. The hair was entirely burned from her head and her face and arms were burned badly.

The presence of mind of the girl no doubt saved the lives of the family, and prevented the destruction of the residence, which is located on the farm of W. L. Steidley, one and a half miles north of here.

J. M. Batchelder was in Sterling Tuesday.

RAILROAD MAY CHANGE TO OLD ARRANGEMENT

Gossip in local railroad circles has it that the Chicago and North Western officials are planning to put the Nelson-Peoria line back in the Galena division control.

While no official announcement has yet been made the report is that the Nelson-Peoria line which is now operated as the Southern Illinois division has been running at a loss since being placed under separate management, mainly on account of frequent short runs and lack of economy in handling trains.

Under the former joint management with the Galena division, train crews went direct from Belvidere to Peoria and many additional railroad men made their headquarters at Belvidere.

Miss Myrtle Rice and brother, Curtis, will go to Polo this evening to furnish music for a dancing party to be held there.

All over Dixon you hear it. Doan's Kidney Pills are keeping up the good work. Dixon people are telling about work. Dixon people are telling about it—telling of bad backs made sound again.
